NATC 50th Anniversary Lunch celebrating Fifty Glorious Years of Fun and Friendship

Venue

The National Conference Centre is ideally located, situated in the heart of the Midlands on Junction 6 of the M42 and only 5 minutes from Birmingham International railway station and airport. The Imperial is a stunning room with art deco styling and crystal chandeliers.

Theme

Fun and Friendship! A celebration of the past 50 glorious years of the National Association of Tangent Clubs. An opportunity to meet with friends past, present and future.

Speaker

Steve Pateman is an accomplished after dinner speaker. His stories tell of his life from a shoe factory managing director, leading his company from every day footwear and fashion, into the kinky boot market. Recalling how he went from the back streets of Earls Barton , to a BBC2 programme “The Kinky Boot Factory” which millions of people have watched worldwide. Then in 2005, the story was told in the film “Kinky Boots” and subsequently made into a Broadway musical of the same name. The real life Charlie Price will have you in fits of laughter, with an engaging talk filled with humanity. www.bossinboots.co.uk
