

Tangent email update

Hi ladies, many thanks to all the club contacts who have supplied their contact information ready for the new Directory. Forms were circulated in May; if you did not receive any communication please let me know as soon as possible.

- We are pleased to announce a new agreement with PS Graphics as suppliers for Tangent regalia, branded gifts and clothing coming soon through a new website – please keep an eye out for this on the existing Tangent shop site and Facebook. Please explore the new website and enjoy shopping!

The Marcasite brooch and the Crystal Tangent pin, both of which can be ordered through Ruth Sage, our National Sales & Regalia Officer, using the attached forms. If your club has any regalia orders outstanding for 2015-16 please let Ruth know if you have not already done so at sales@tangent-clubs.org.

- The National Half Year meeting will take place at the Novotel Hotel, Leeds, on Saturday 1st October and we would welcome your ideas for topics for discussion. Would you be interested in social media training? A data protection talk? Workshops on making videos, public speaking or fund raising? Please send your ideas to secretary@tangent-clubs.org by the 15th August. Accommodation is available for Friday or Saturday evening at preferential rates, Friday £89 single b&b, £99 double b&b, Saturday £109 room only.
- Alex Voller, our Immediate Past-President, has produced a report on the Tangent Clubs International AGM held in Germany, please see attached. Congratulations to the new Tangent Clubs International Board, including Alex who is 2016-17 International Secretary! The TCI membership fee was passed on a sliding scale, the option that NATC agreed we would support at our AGM, this means that we will pay 1,000 Euros per year for a period of 3 years.
- Paula's Charity Lunch is being held on Saturday 3rd September at The Castle Hotel, Windsor and her ball on Saturday 19th November at the Runnymede-on-Thames hotel and spa, Egham, both in aid of The Kidstime Foundation. Bookings can be made by via the attached forms.
- Also attached is our first digital newsletter, lots of information from Regional lunches and items of interest to keep you going until the magazine arrives. Make sure you book in for the South West Regional lunch (24th September) and the South East Regional lunch (12th November) using the lunch forms on the website.

That's it ladies – until next time!
